Independent Baptist Seminary does not hold, and does not seek to hold, state accreditation. We do not confer secular degrees. The seminary is a ministry of Capitol Baptist Church in response to the biblical directive to "... teach others also." (II Timothy 2:2) The seminary does not seek state approval or any other secular recognition for its courses of instruction. No student should consider his education from this institute as qualifying him to hold a secular position of employment. Any graduating certificate/diploma signifies the completion of a course of study that will equip God's servant for ministry in a like-faith local independent Baptist church. Independent Baptist Seminary models its format and instruction to be similar to a college atmosphere, but this is no guarantee that our "credits" will be accepted by other post-secondary institutions, although other Bible colleges have accepted them.
